 - Checklist adoptium/adoptium#83
 - Platform status adoptium/adoptium#81
 - Still completing the AIX testing and Linux installers.
 - Retrospective booked for next week.
- Should we now produce JREs for JDK17?
 - Proposal is to produce JREs again, including retrospectively for 17.01.
 - Discussion about the production of JREs from jlink from existing pipelines vs. manual jlinking from the JDKs.
 - ACTION: Tim to raise in the PMC channel the topic of producing JREs to allow comment by members absent from this meeting.
- Upgrade of GCC for JDK17: Upgrade jdk17+ linux builds to use gcc-8 · Issue #2787 · adoptium/temurin-build
 - Proposal for JDK17 and later stream.

- Currently using gcc 7.5. Upstream advising to use later version gcc 8.2.1 in 17 onwards, also helpful with reproducible build work.
- Not expecting to lose support for any OS versions, or introduce backwards compatibility problems.
- Proposal to compare with other vendors and ensure consistency. Especially if consideration of use for Java 8 and 11 streams.
- Linux Installer status
 - Artifactory instance being created, with a CNAME appropriate for Adoptium.
 - RPMs are not currently gpg signed, and we have no code to push to JFrog.
 - Proposal to manually push to allow the community to test the repo manager.
 - Sophia has been given the earlier work on Artifactory push scripts, which will need reworking for Temurin packages.
 - Discussion to skip the temporary plan to push to Github, and strive straight for the Artifactory location.
